

ARRANGING TO RUSH CARRANZISTA ARMY

American Officials Will Expedite
Transportation Through the Two States to Douglas.

Steps to expedite the passage across American soil of Carranza's army from Eagle pass and Laredo, Tex., to Douglas, Ariz., were taken by officials today. Railroad authorities were asked to hasten the troop movement, to prevent possible fighting between the Carranzistas and Mexican raiders on this side of the boundary and also to relieve the situation at Douglas.

Prompt arrival of the Carranza reinforcements at Agua Prieta, just opposite Douglas, officials believe, will prevent endangering Americans should Villa's army make an assault. From 7,000 to 10,000 Carranza troops are being rushed to Agua Prieta. Officials hope to have them arrive before Villa's army begins its assault. Army officials predict that if the Carranza reinforcements arrive Villa may not attempt an attack, or at least the battle ground would be chosen south of Agua Prieta, and sufficiently distant from the border to avoid danger to Americans in Douglas.

GERMANS OPEN UP WAY TO BULGARIA

the Belgrade-Constantinople line. It is also strategically important for control of the Kolubara-Lika rivers, the most convenient means of pushing southward to a junction with the Morava valley continent probably about 100 miles southeast of Belgrade.

The Serbs resisted the invaders' progress desperately and the advance was accomplished only after the fiercest fighting.

Cleared of Serbs.
In the vicinity of Vukovar, on the Austrian side of the Austro-Serbian frontier and twenty miles north of the Austro-Montenegrin border, where Serbs and Montenegrins had joined forces, the combined army was thrown backward by the Austrians.

After fierce mountain fighting, all northeastern Serbia, east of the Klisura narrows, about forty-five miles east of the Morava, has been cleared of Serbs. The situation, aimed up, represented a steady advance today in all Northern Serbia, extending clear across from the northwestern to the northeastern frontier. The center of the line had progressed a little more than forty miles, a little to the east of south of Belgrade, extending from a front from the Topola to the Raca heights, a distance of nearly twenty miles.

The extreme right and left wings have not advanced more than a few miles from the Save and the Danube rivers, but the latter is the center of the advance of a junction with the Bulgarians who have been operating to the northwestward across the Timok river.

This union will give the Austro-Germans a direct route from Hungary, through a conquered corner of Serbian territory, to Bulgaria and thence to Turkey, though it will be one with a long break in rail connection.

Heavy Italian Losses.
Three thousand fallen Italians still lie in the open in front of the position held by one Austrian regiment on the Isonzo plateau, on the Isonzo front, according to an official statement issued today. The Italian losses were very heavy throughout this entire district, said the report.

In the Tolmino and Gorizia regions and along the line north from Tolmino to Isonzo, extraordinarily vigorous Italian attacks were said to have been made, and confidently expected to succeed.

Italian attempts to take Monte Sabotino were reported abandoned Tuesday, after 2,000 losses.

Paris Believes Greece Will Not Participate In Serbian Relief

PARIS, Oct. 27.—Military experts here believe Greece will take no part in the Serbian expedition in view of the statement that only 12,000 British troops are at Salonika, with possibly only an equal number of French forces.

As a condition even to considering entrance into the war, Greece needed the presence of an adequate force of the allies. That she would deem 30,000 or 50,000 adequate is regarded out of the question.

Reports of a Greek clash, presumably with Bulgarians, though this was not specified, were believed to mean an unauthorized frontier skirmish, not surprising in view of present strained relations and too common in the Balkans to mean serious developments.

Venice Damaged by Austrian Air Attack

BERLIN (via wireless to Sayville), Oct. 27.—Great damage was done at Venice by the Austrian aerial bombardment of the city on Monday and Tuesday, according to dispatches from Vienna.

During the first attack, it is stated, bombs were rained from 10:30 a. m. until 1 a. m. on the Italian arsenal, electric plant, railroad station, fortifications, and other military establishments. Numerous fires resulted.

The airman revisited the city on Tuesday morning and bombarded the Italian harbor and the shoreline. It is believed that an Italian aeroplane is reported to have visited Trieste.

New Model Aeroplane of Germans Is Captured

LONDON, Oct. 27.—An unusually swift German aeroplane, apparently of a new type, has fallen into the hands of the French, following a battle in the clouds over the valley of the Marne.

The pilot and observer were captured by French troops while endeavoring to destroy the valley of the Marne. It is believed, to hide from the capture, the new improvements, which are of great military value.

The aeroplane was forced to descend at Jaulgonne, in the Marne valley, after the motor had been struck several times by shots fired by a French aviator, who gave chase to the invader.

Montenegro Appeals For Italian Help

ROME, Oct. 27.—Following the example of the Serbian premier, who has appealed to the British for aid, King Nicholas of Montenegro has telegraphed to the King of Italy, begging for help against the Austrians. It was learned here today.

Manager May Revoke Theater Ticket, Ruling

Contending that the holder of a theater ticket has merely a license that may be revoked at any time by the management, Attorney Frank J. Hogan was successful in procuring a directed verdict for the defendant in the suit for damages brought by J. Frank Wahl against the Washington Theater Company in Justice Gould's Court late yesterday. The court sustained the motion for a directed verdict on the grounds that an auditor after given notice that his ticket is revoked becomes a trespasser.

The action, terminated the suit for $10,000 damages brought by Wahl, who maintained that he purchased a ticket for the play "The Sign of the Cross" on October 18, 1915, and was ejected because he stood up while the orchestra played a patriotic air. The plaintiff had been ejected by the District National Guard. He was represented by Attorney M. J. Colbert.

What to Do for Itching Skins

There is immediate relief for skins itching, burning and disfigured by eczema, ringworm, or similar tormenting skin trouble, in a warm bath with resal soap and a simple application of resal ointment. The soothing, healing resal medication sinks right into the skin, stopping itching instantly, and soon clears away all trace of eruption, even in severe and stubborn cases where other treatments have had little or no effect.

You need never hesitate to use resal. It is a doctor's prescription that has been used by other physicians for twenty years in the treatment of skin affections. It contains absolutely nothing that could injure the tenderest skin. Every druggist sells resal ointment and resal soap. Samples free, Dept. 7-R, Resal, Baltimore, Md.

PACKERS' ARGUMENT TO BE MADE TODAY

Counsel Will Present Protest Against Confiscation of Cargoes by England.

Representatives of Chicago packing companies, protesting against the confiscation of their cargoes by England, will present arguments by counsel today before the State Department.

A delegation of representatives of the packers conferred with Counselor Polk yesterday, and made complaint about the treatment by the allies, especially England, of cargoes. A. I. Union, general counsel for Armour & Company; C. J. Faulkner, Jr., and A. H. Veeder, representing other packers, compose the delegation.

The packers want this Government to take up the cases of their cargoes diplomatically instead of allowing the issue to be settled in the prize courts.

In a conference between Ambassador Spring-Rice and Counselor Polk, of the State Department, plans were considered for expediting the release for export to the United States of goods of German origin held up at Rotterdam and other neutral ports.

One proposal is that an arbitrator be chosen who would have authority to pass on the validity of claims presented by American importers.

While many goods are being released, there is dissatisfaction on both sides with the mode of procedure.
